

EDINBURGH FESTIVAL FRINGE 2005
James Seabright for Festival Highlights presents

THE WATERSHED CABARET

EXTRA SHOWS FROM THE FESTIVAL'S FINEST COMEDIANS AND MUSICIANS

This is a chance to see the festival's finest comedians and musicians, doing something rather different from their normal shows in a relaxed cabaret bar setting.

Five acts over eighteen shows are let loose in this after 9 slot, bringing you jazz, magic, laughs and even sometimes free wine. Enjoy seeing some of these festival favourites in this easy-going atmosphere.

Artisan Trio

Tom Hodge from Confessions of a Jingle Writer is joined by the rest of his band to play distorted jazz breaks with a dash of sampling, set against cutting-edge animation. Groove-based jazz meets electronica.
6, 11, 14, 25 August

Barb Jungr's Café Prague

Come and hear more from Barb at this European cabaret club hosted by the "world class vocalist" Telegraph with guest voices including David Benson. Jungr also plays ten days of her latest show Love Me Tender, featuring new interpretations of Elvis Presley's songs, at this year's festival.
21, 24, 27 August

Carl-Einar Häckner

The maverick, magical, musical Swedish comedian reprises favourites from last year's debut Edinburgh show, including the memorable harmonica and banana numbers, and premieres material new to the UK.
7, 13, 19, 22 August

Graffiti Classics

More like a rock gig than a classical concert. The stand-up string quartet let rip in a way not quite appropriate in their family-friendly 5.30pm show...
9, 12, 15, 18 August

The Joy of Wine

The Black Sheep's sell-out hit of 2004, complete with free wine and brief male nudity. Directed by Cal McCrystal. "This show will make you laugh buckets" Daily Mail Pick Of The Day.
8, 20, 26 August
