

EDINBURGH FESTIVAL FRINGE 2009 - COMEDY

Kat Portman for Festival Highlights presents

LONG TOOTH

Written and performed by Trudi Jackson and Vivienne Gibbs.

Directed by Hannah Eidinow

Gilded Balloon Teviot: 5 - 29 August, 2.30 pm - 3.30 pm
(not 12 August)

Two misfit friends lead us through their skewed take on history. New character comedy from Trudi Jackson and Vivienne Gibbs.

Meet square-pegs Julie and Liz: Liz likes history and is a serious actor, Julie just wants to show-off on stage. They both wish they were someone else. They proudly present their hard-hitting show: a thought provoking, action filled, historical drama panorama (with added light spooning & an interactive quiz).

Julie and Liz shed new light on rock gods, psycho killers, mid-west schoolgirls, and anyone else they'd like to be with revolution, murder, Jane Austen, murder, Elvis, Elizabeth the First, murder and Elvis again. It's a 'History-ographical Drama'.

If you had to spend all your time with someone you thought was a pain in the arse, you might want to be someone else too.

Vivienne Gibbs' work on film includes Atonement (Working Title); and Rabbit Fever. Her television credits include Comedy Lab (Tiger Aspect). Trudi Jackson's work on screen includes Gavin & Stacey (BBC); and The Libertine. Previous work with director Hannah Eidinow includes Simpatico (The Old Red Lion) and The Depths (The Arcola).

Directed by double Fringe First winner Hannah Eidinow (for What I Heard About Iraq and Gone). Hannah is an associate director of The Miniaturists, a writer-led group dedicated to producing short plays and has worked with a number of established playwrights to produce shows at the Arcola. She recently directed The Lady From The Sea (Arcola) and is currently directing The Ugly One at Norwich Playhouse.
