Matinee 18 August 12.45pm - 2.00pm

An unforgettable romantic musical comedy, set to the songs of Pink Floyd.

When Pink Floyd reformed for the Live8 concert in 2005 it was a seismic event in the lives of their fans all around the world. But behind those headlines was a much bigger story...

Based on the book 'Chapters in the Life of Rex Roman', this show tells the story of British actor and air guitar hero Rex Roman. Now Rex's agent, Mr Handsome, will guide the audience through his client's incredible story as he remembers how they met, how Rex began his rise up the greasy pole of showbiz and how Rex won and lost it all. In the show some of the greatest songs ever written by the legendary group Pink Floyd are performed live by a fantastic 7-piece band, set against a brilliant video design. Many songs have been specially adapted into new and moving arrangements, forming the soundtrack to Rex's life.

A must for comedy fans and Floyd fans alike. BBC Radio

Although Rex moved from London to Los Angeles in 1980 he left his mark on the British acting scene. Even now, following his superb performance as Professor Plum in a 1979 touring production of Cluedo, the Grimsby Gazette continues to describe Rex as "one of the finest Plums ever to grace Grimsby". High praise indeed.

An incredible mix of comedy and music. Guardian Newspapers

Written by the book's author and the band's drummer, Simon Ash, The Rex Roman Pink Floyd Show is a musical comedy with a huge heart, which has been winning standing ovations around the UK, and will continue to tour in the autumn following this Edinburgh season.

The cast are John Mawson, Kenneth McConnell, Kate Millest, Steven Shapland and Stephen Yeo. The band are Simon Ash, Phil Baker, Alex Demetriou, Kim Griffin, Safia Haleem, Tina Lewis and Joe Orban.
